

Principal Lawyer – Mining and Native Title

THE OPPORTUNITY

Austwide Legal is a boutique firm based in Wangara Western Australia, specialising in matters relating to tenure associated with the mining industry.

Austwide Legal is currently seeking a Principal Lawyer to lead a team dealing with various matters relating to Native Title and the Mining Act. Our clients include leading mining companies as well as smaller companies and individuals.

SKILLS, EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

To be considered for this role you must have had substantial experience in the mining industry. Excellent interpersonal skills are essential with strong drafting and written communications skills, along with attention to detail.

To be successful in this role, you will be passionate and motivated to pursue a career in the mining industry.

CONTRACT TYPE

Full time and permanent, following an initial probation period. An attractive salary package will be provided to secure a person with the qualities Austwide Legal is seeking.

HOW TO APPLY

To apply for this position please supply a one page covering letter describing your interests in the position as well as a detailed CV to reception@austwidelegal.com.au.